Importance Of Plastics : From Sunrise to Sunset, as you go through your typical day, take note of the role plastics play in your life - a role often taken granted : you awaken to the sound of your alarm clock, you make coffee, use your toothbrush and hairbrush, you fill your reusable lunch bag, you drive your car or ride your bike (don't forget that helmet!), you make few calls from your smartphone, you work at your computer, you enjoy a bottle of water, you remove the protective film around the meat or vegetables you'll prepare for dinner And that only begins to touch the surface of the importance of plastics which is a vital component of thousands of products we rely upon every day.
